

Subject ID:

CASE RECORD FORM

A CLINICAL STUDY-THERAPEUTIC POTENTIAL OF STEM CELLS IN the treatment of
PARKINSON'S DISEASE

INCLUSION CRITERIA

- should be in the age group of 18-80 years.
- should be fully conscious, alert and oriented while providing consent
- should show significant motor and non motor symptoms
- subject should understand the requirements of study
- subject should provide a written informed consent and agree to return for Follow up

- subject should be clinically diagnosed for Parkinson's disease with motor complications despite adequate oral antiparkinsonian therapy.
- should be able to comply with and understand the required visit schedule and required tests and procedures.

EXCLUSION CRITERIA

- patient is suffering from Dementia (MMSE <25)

- patient is suffering from a neurodegenerative disorder other than Parkinson.
- the extent or severity of the disease is not measurable.
- If the subject suffers from preexisting medical conditions such as bleeding disorders, septicemia

- Patients with a past (within one year) or present history of severe psychiatric problem.

- if the patient has been enrolled in other investigational drug trial or has completed any trial within the last 3 months.
- if Hemoglobin < 10gm/dl, Serum Creatinine < 2mg/dl serum total bilirubin < 2mg /dl and HbA1c < 7%

- pregnant or nursing or women in child bearing age without adequate contraception.

- the subject tested positive for HIV, HCV, HBV, CMV or VDRL?